Jackson, November 7th.—The latest returns show no change in the result of the election announced last night, except Panola county, where the fusion ticket was defeated by a small majority. Adams, Hinds, Madison and Monroe counties give good fusion majorities. The regular Democratic ticket had little opposition elsewhere.

YANKTON, November 7th.—The portion of the Territory south of the 46th parallel voted yesterday on the ratification of a constitution. At Sioux Falls, in September, a complete constitution was made from the best portions of various State constitution.

stitutions. The proposition is to petition Congress this winter and ask the admission of the couth half of Dakota as a State. There being no general election in the Territory, a light vote was polled. Incomplete returns from 15 of the 48 counties are in is the fruit of Republican progress and Republican union; it is the vindication and reward of a broad, liberal and advancing Republican policy. New York, November 7th.—The Times, on the total result, says: Remembering that this is an off year, that the officers elected play a comparatively unimportant pare in the Government, that the Deunimportant pair in the Government, that the Democracy held the executive offic 1by an overwhelming majority, and the Legislature by a very strong one, the fact that they have lost the State at all is exceedingly significant. The leaders who make up their accounts to-night and find the two hundred thousand to their credit a year ago turned to the debit, will, we should say, wish that they had been more economical. The election shows plainly that the Independent Republicans have regained substantial confidence in their party, that they were satisfied with the character of their candidates, and with the way in which they were chosen; that they recognized in the Republican organization again an instrument useful for good government, and efficient to carry out the purpose and convictions of the great body of the party. The victory opens up brilliant possibilities for next year. It also imposes a return of responsibility, but only such 25 can be met, if frankly recognized. The work done at the polls ye terday in New York, Massachusetts, Connecticut and Pennsylvacia makes it clear that something besides the empty cry of "turn the rascals out" will be required as the working capital of the Democratic mocracy held the executive offic by an overwhel red as the working capital of the Democrati party.

The Tribune says: Last year showed what a mere Admin'stration candidate could do in New York. This year shows, under the most adverse circumstances, what a candidate simply a Republican can do wish unity of effort. Next year, with candidates acceptable, New York may c early be made a Republican State in the Presidential contest. Since the last election not even the most sanguine Republicans have expected to carry New York. Within a week or two tne State Committee grew more hopefe', but the grounds of their confidence were not apparent. The party had been badly disorganized or demoralized by a stunning defeat, and the State Committee was unfortunately constituted; the canor demoralized by a stunning defeat, and the State Committee was unfortunately constituted; the canvass was in the last degree apathetic; there were no meetings, no speakers, few documents; there was next to no money. After the crushing blow in the unexpected loss of Ohio, a reduction of the Democratic majority from 200,000 to 25,000 would be in itself a brilliant victory. We have possibly elected the head of the ticket. The Senate is certainly Republican, and the Assembly is heavily so. The legislative branch of the State Government is redeemed, the power for mischief of the Democratic Governor destroyed, and a Republican United States Senator next year made possible.

The Heraua says: Should New York pess into the category of doubtful States in the Presidential election of 1884, the managers of the Democratic party have nobody but themselves to biame for it. Although the result of yesterday throughout this State was practically a revolution—a Democratic majority reversed from 190,000 to 20,000, or thereupon all their vote as a gain for their party. They must not count it without a consideration of their friend, John Kelly. There is no doubt that a large part of the vote yesterday cast for the Republican candidates represents the treason of Tammany Hall to the Democratic candidates, and stands as a equivalent to the election of six Tammany Aldermen—although six is the largest number of Tammany Aldermen that any honest man would care to see elected in this city. Yet this, upon the whole, is still a triumph for the great boss. As the Board of Aldermen now stands, there are eleven Tammany Aldermen, and for this number to be reduced by five is, in its way, a little Waterloo; but even the six were gained by trades that surrendered all else for the Tammany Senator elected. Of the other Aldermen, nine are from the ccuntry De-mocracy and Republicans. Tammany's trade with the Republican bosses has given her all she posses-es.

The State Elections. New York, November 7th.—Beturns come in slowly, leaving the State ticket still in doubt. The next Senate will be nineteen Republicans to thirteen Democrats, unless changes are made in some districts by later returns. Low's majority in Brooklyn is now placed at 1,849.

Archison (Ks.), November 7th.—Colonel John A.
Martin, Secretary of the National Republican Committee, to-day sent out the following call:
A meeting of the Republican National Committee will be held at the Arlington House, Washington, D. C., on Wednerday, December 12, 1883, at 12 o'clock, for the purpose of deciding upon the date and place for holding the next National Republican Convention. The committee will also elect a Chair Petersburg, November 7th.—Returns at 1:30 this afternoon indicate the Democrata have carried the State by between 10,000 and 15,000 majority. The RICHMOND, November 7th.—Additional returns this morning show Democratic gains of one member of the House of Delegates in each of the following counties: Charlotte, Culpepper, Fairfax, Hanover, Franklin, Henry, Montgomery, Norfolk, Wythe, Princess Anne, one in Craig and Roanoke, one in Greene and Madison, one in Smyth and Bland, two in Chesterfield and Powhattan, two in Rockbridge, and two in Washington. This, with the loss of one member in Caroline, makes the net Democrat gain 18, which insures a Democrat majority in the House of 10, with a good prospect of the majority reaching to 25 or 30. The Democrats have 22 out of the 40 Senators, which will make their majority 4, with a chance of increasing it to 8. The Democrats estimate their majority on the popular vote of the State to be between 12,000 and 20,000.

Chicago, November 7th.—The papers have builded a very handsome romance out of a variety of actual facts. One year ago Alfred, Count Salm-Salm, lived in the city of Bonn, and was a student of its famous University. He was a handsome young man, 19 years of age, with unlimited resources. His father, Prince Frederick Salm-Salm, is one of the highest and wealthiest nobles of the German Empire, and titular chief of the aristocracy of Rhenish pire, and titular chief of the aristocracy of Rhenish pire, and titular chief of the aristocracy of Rhenish pire, and titular chief of the aristocracy of Rhenish pire, and titular chief of the aristocracy of Rhenish pire, and titular chief of the aristocracy of Rhenish pire, and titular chief of the Sierta Madre. pire, and titular chief of the aristocracy of Rhenish Prussia. Prince Salm-Salm, who was Colonel on the staff of General McClclan during the late war, and at its close entered the service of Maximilian in Mexico as Adjutant-General, and subsequently fell in the service of Emperor William at the battle of Gravelotte in France during the German war, was a relative of Count Affred. Alfred fell in love with a beautiful lady of the city of Bonn. She was also loved by another student, and the rivalry between them became so warm and personal that a duel was the consequence. The Prince forbade all further intercourse between his son and the lady, and publicly announced he would no longer by responsible for the Count's debts growing out of this state of affins. The Count quit school and came to America. After the departure of his son, the father became penitent, and a long ready to ship. It was school and came to America. After the departure of his son, the father became penitent, and a long time having elapsed without any tidlags of his son, the Frince, throwth detectives and the press, offered a large sum of money for news concerning him; but none came, and so he was given up for dead. Last week Carl Schneider, who had been a private in the King's Hussars, garrisoned at Bonn, met Count Alfred, both being common laborers on the Illinois Central Railroad. He advised the Prince by letter, and a trusted messenger, Mr. Von Maltzahn, was dispatched from Germany. He arrived here a few days ago. The young Count was found, the father's forgiveness tendered, has anxiety expressed, and the consent of the Count to return looms invanging the With his old detays of $37.5 preced, and the consent of the Count to return home immediately. With his old clothes of a rail-road laborer he threw off the name of Frederick Reinhart, by which he was known, and with a new suit, he again assumed his hereditary title—Alfred, Count Salm Salm. LOUISVILLE (Ky.), November 7th,—Since Gilmore's band has been giving concerts at the Southern Exposition society has had a coothsome morsel for discussion in the craze among the young ladies of the city after Fred Innes, the trombone soloist of the band. Innes is a handsome fellow, about 36 years old, six feet high, with a killing mustache and eyes. The young ladies have gone wild over him. Day after day they have fought for front set its haunted him during the intermissions, sought an introduction, written letters to him, and have repeated the wild and extravagant story of "Bunthorne" and the sighing maidens. The city papers have published articles about the craze, and Figaro illustrated the matter. To-day the Courier-Journal attacked Innes flercely, saying he had deserted his wife and children, and was a deserter from the British army. The publication has created a great sensation among the ladies who have we reshiped funes. There are a number, well known in the highest society, who have walked with him and highest society, who have walked with him and spent hours in loitering in popular tea stands with him, where he was surrounded by a bevy of admiring gris. Butler's Views on His Defeat.

Prirsburg, November 7th.—The Commercial Gazette this evening telegraphed General B. F. Butler for his views on the result in Massachusetts, and asking for his programme for the future. The following reply was received:

Bosron, November 7th.—9 P. M.—To the Editors of the Pittsburg Commercial Gazette: An answer to your question is easy as to the cause of the result in Massachusetts. Lest year I had 134,000 votes. The largest vote ever polled we's in the Garfield election in 1880, when Garfield had 165,000, and Hancock 112,000. The total vote was 277,000. This grant had 135,000 to the largest vote ever polled we's in the Garfield election in 1880, when Garfield had 165,000, and Hancock 112,000. The total vote was 277,000. This grant had 135,000 to follow the free use of money, and the fraud and corruption of my opponents. More votes have been caused by the free use of money, and the fraud and corruption of my opponents. More votes have been cast than will be in the next Presidential year. The eight or nine thousand plurality of my opponent was more than lost in the city of Boston. Massachusetts is therefore surely Democratic. If I make another fore surely Democratic vote that we will be a further gain. When a man has increased the Democratic vote form 112,000 to 152,000 in three years, is there any need of an answer to yout chan to be elected by 135, 000. In that case it would be said that Massachusetts is a Republican State. She hss a large reser

Chicago, November 7th.—The Cieveland Leader of Monday published a long editorial headed "A Nuisance and an Ass," which was devoted to editor Bickham and the Dayton Journal. It was pointedly personal and drew out the following editorial paragraph in the Journal to-day: "In Monday's Leader you wantonly published a statement concerning me that was utterly without foundation. I denounce you personally as a liar and a slanderer." White, a prominent Democrat, was shot fatally. No Sudden Death of a Scuator.

PETERSEURG, November 7th.—Late information received concerning the disturbance at Wakefield shows a more serious result than at first reported. In addition to R. W. White, who was shot, it is thought W. H. Morris, proprietor of the hotel at Wakefield, has been killed. At the time of the disturbance, Morris, against whom some ill feeling existed, attempted to leave the crowd, when he was pursued by a mob. Nothing has since been heard of his whereabouts, and it is supposed that after being killed his body was concealed. While the disturbance was at its hight police a "istance was telegraphed for from Waverly. The place subsequently became quiet. A large pole of men have been Morricrows (N. But whatever the claim and right of Cockerill, the settler who was evicted, he has had his day in Court, and the highest authority under the law has decided that he was a trespasser, and that he was not entitled to the possession of the land. McAuliffe was lawfully in possession for his principal, and because he was, he was shot down from ambush by cowardly assassins. The dispatches assert that it is all a mystery as to who the murderers are. In fact there is no mystery about it, except, perhaps, as to the specific identity of the individuals who pulled the triggers. The responsibility for this outrage upon law, and this killing in cold blood of a man who was doing no wrong, is easily fixed. But it appears that the railroad company

All of the Sacramento companies appeared with full ranks, and Company F, of Woodland, Captain Spencer, appeared with fifty men. The regimental band, nineteen men, made a fine appearance with their showy uniforms, and discoursed the finest of music. All the movements were made with military precision such as would have done military precision such as would have done and P. J. Kelley, $5,000.

| Wm. F. White, the newly-appointed Bank Commissioner, has filed his official bond in the office of the Secretary of State, the sureties being: Ed. White, $10,000; John T. Porter, $10,000; Thomas Kennedy, $5.000; Michael Quirk, $5,000; Michael Quirk, $5,000; Elmar Dakin, $5,000; by teams, over high mountains and rough roads, and the cost of freight in this way to the cost of the property of the secretary of State, the sureties being: Ed. White, $10,000; John T. Porter, $10,000; Thomas Kennedy, $5.000; Michael Quirk, $5,000; Elmar Dakin, $5,000, and P. J. Kelley, $5,000. in this primeval condition because the market for lumber could not be reached except by teams, over high mountains and rough roads, and the cost of freight in this way would be in excess of the market value of the product. All this will be changed, however, in a short time, as the railroad from Shingle Springs to Placerville will soon be completed, and also the proposed narrow gauge road from Rocklin to Georgetown. El Dorado is not only rich in gold, fruits and timber, but a discovery a few days since of an iron mine in the southern portion of the county, a few miles from Folsom, adds another to her long list of industries, and one which will no doubt materially add to her wealth. The body of ore is very extensive, and assays from 80 to 85 per cent, and in appearance resembles cast iron. So pure is it, that by heating in a common blacksmith's forge it can be hammered out and shaped the same as common iron without crumbling About one hundred tons of this ore hes been shipped to San Francisco, and the result of the smelting and working of the same was most satisfactory. A party of Eastern capi-talists are negotiating for an interest in this new and rich discovery, and ere long the largest smelting works west of the Mississippi will be erected. This county also has limestone, the finest in the State, while the late quarries near Placerville, and the marany country. The raising of live stock and dairy products are not among the least important industries in the county. Within her corders can be found flourishing tropical plants, oranges growing to unusual size and of exquisite flavor, while but a few miles distant you see the summits of the mountains covered with eternal snows. The landscape along the banks of her crystal streams is un-rivaled in beauty by that on the Hudson. The fertility of her soil is unequaled, and the scenery in her hills and mountain glens surpasses most of that of the far-tamed Switzer

A S.D STORY.

The Bulletin of November 7th tells the following story of suffering and death in San Francisco: A sad history is that of Henry Morgan, of New Dungeness, W. T. who came to this city a few weeks ago, only to die last Sunday in a hospital here, away from home and family. Morgan was aged about 19, judging by appearances. He was well connected, having a brother and uncle in business in Portland, and leaving behind his mother and other relatives in New Dungeness. He came to San Francisco to seek his fortune and to look about, and brought with him a small sum of money. He secured employment in a machine shop, and worked there for awhile, but about three weeks ago his work ended there. He had distant relatives here on whom he called while looking for further employment. Then he disappeared, and the next that the San Francisco relatives knew concerning him was learned through a letter received from a charitable physician, who had found him very ill with typhoid fever in a cheap lodging-house, without attendance. When he found himself growing ill his pride prevented him from making his condition known. A quack doctor's advertisement attracted his attention and he went to this parson for treatment. The only effect was that he was left worse off than before, the doctor" entirely misunderstanding the unfortunate lad's ailment, but not failing to take about all the money he had saved, which amounted to about $70. When his relatives found him they did all that they possibly could. Lacking accommodations at their homes, they had him taken from his squalid quarters to a light and airy room at a hospital and gave directions that expense should not be spared in caring for him. He had become delirious and raved about his distant home and his mother, whom he deliriously believed to be dead. Telegrams were sent to New Dungeness and Portland giving information concerning his condition, and advising his friends to come to this city. Up to Saturday night last it appeared probable that Morgan might recover, but Sunday the end came. The sad news of his death was telegraphed Monday to his family, and his brother will on Friday arrive by steamer to take his body back to his sorrowing

A WALKING GOLD MINE. -In 1853 lightning struck the Lockport Congregational Church one Sunday morning during service, killed one of the singers in the choir and severely shocked others. One of them, Miss May Place, was struck insensible, and was ill for many months after, during which she had severe pains in her side. A singuar thing about the stroke, in her case, was the fact that a long gold watch chain and locket, which she wore at the time, totally disappeared, except some small fused pieces of the locket and particles of glass. On ner side a bright red mark, similar in form to the locket and chain, was found. About two years ago Miss Place, now Mrs. Nesmith, discovered a long, narrow protiu-bence upon her left arm. This was not painful at all, but seemed to be hard in the center. The swelling later became much larger and worked down upon the arm. The result is that now, thirty years after gold chain, three feet long, so mysteriously spirited away by lightning, is plainly to be seen imbedded in her right arm close to the

THE PHILOSOPHY OF HEADACHE.

Ladies

Do you want a pure, blooming Complexion? If so, a few applications of Hagan's MAGNOLIA BALM will gratify you to your heart's content. It does away with Sallowness, Redness, Pimples, Blotches, and all diseases and imperfections of the skin. It overcomes the flushed appearance of heat, fatigue and excitement. It makes a lady of THIRTY appear but TWEN-TY; and so natural, gradual, and perfect are its effects, that it is impossible to detect its application.

Felix A. Wahl, of this city, sailed on the ship St. Clair, of Thomaston, Me., as steward of a crew of sixteen, December 18, 1882, bound for Nagasaki, Japan. May let the vessel ran on the shoaling shores of one of the Sunda Islands, and became a total wreck. The officers and crew took to the boats, and first landed at a desolate and uninhabited island, where Wahl, suspicious of the trustiless of the boats, which had long been unused, decided to remain. There he subsisted like another "Robinson Crusoe," unti like another "Robinson Crusoe," until Japanese fishermen came to the island, after an interval of nearly three weeks, and he was by them rescued. All this time he lived on fish and oysters, and found shelter under sheds which these fishermen had built on former occasions. From the island he was taken to Teobe, and thence to Yokohama, where the American Consul interested himself to have Wall returned to this self to have Wahl returned to this country, and he arrived here a few days ago, and now tells his story modestly, but freely, to other sailors who have braved the perils of the sea
